CONFIDENTIAL

No. 150

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs and has the honor to inform the Royal Ministry that the following employees of the Foreign Broadcast Information Service, Mediterranean Bureau, who are nationals of the countries indicated have recently been discharged and are no longer employees of the Government of the United States of America. Under arrangements with the British Government they were to be repatriated to the country in which they were hired at the expense of the Government of the United States of America. Their names and the country from which they were originally employed follows:

25X1

The Government of the United States of America has assured these persons that it will bear the costs of repatriation to their individual countries but they have declined to return to these countries. The Government of the United States of America has notified these persons that the Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs would be notified of their refusal to be repatriated and that the Government of the United States of America could not request that their Egyptian visas be extended beyond the date of this communication.
